

NI Ethics Forum Essay Competition Winners (2006-2012).

Annual Essay Competition 2012

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Katherine Keaney (Medicine)	Live and let die- doctors and assisted suicide
-----------	--------------------------------	--

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford and Dr Ann Begley

Annual Essay Competition 2011

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Timothy Shaw QUB (Medicine)	Worlds apart on medical ethics – where do you start the discussion?
-----------	--------------------------------	---

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford and Dr Donagh MacDonagh

Annual Essay Competition 2010

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Donal McGlade, UUC (PhD Student)	Should we assume that presumed consent exists for organ donation?
-----------	-------------------------------------	---

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford, Dr Melissa McCullough and Dr Donagh MacDonagh

Annual Essay Competition 2009

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Daniel Burke QUB (Medicine)	Female Genital Mutilation- who, what, where, when and why?
-----------	--------------------------------	--

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford, Professor Sheena Lewis and Dr Donagh MacDonagh

Annual Essay Competition 2008

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Brian Howard QUB (Medicine)	Should the Northern Ireland Assembly pass legislation to legalise active euthanasia?
2nd Place	James Gilroy QUB (Medicine)	Should the principle of autonomy trump the principles of beneficence and non-maleficence?

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford, Professor Sheena Lewis and Dr Ann Begley

Annual Essay Competition 2007

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Rebecca Little QUB (Medicine)	Critical appraisal of GMC Guidelines on withholding and withdrawing treatment
2nd Place	Pamela Eakin QUB (Medicine)	Preimplantation genetic diagnosis: technical wonder or ethical impossibility?

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford, Professor Sheena Lewis and Dr David Bell

Annual Essay Competition 2006

Congratulations to the following:

1st Place	Catherine Malone QUB (Medicine)	Ethical dilemmas associated with assisted reproductive technologies
2nd Place =	Gavin Mercer-Smith QUB (Medicine)	The use of advanced directives and the clinician's obligations to comply with the patient's registered preferences and wishes
2nd Place =	Rachael Caffery QUB (Medicine)	Ethical issues of reproductive technologies

Thanks are extended to the judging panel: Dr Vivienne Crawford and Professor Sheena Lewis